Re: Choir Members:

Miss Ruth Smith,
217 Redmond Street,
New Brunswick, N.J.

I had a talk with Miss Smith at her home yesterday afternoon. She is a young woman about thirty years of age and has a frank and pleasing personality.

She informed me that she has been more or less actively connected with the choir for a number of years, in fact during all of the time that Dr. Hall was the pastor of the church. While at times it seemed as though Mrs. Mills was favored by Dr. Hall in selecting her for solo parts in the musical services, she had never seen or heard of anything prior to the murders which suggested any love affair or improper relations between Dr. Hall and Mrs. Mills.

I am satisfied, from my talk with her, that she would be a good witness and I feel she would not hesitate about appearing.

Respectfully submitted:
